The Secretary read a letter from the Colonial Secretary stating that, in according dance with the request of the Commission for a legal Secretary, Mr A G. Wise had been appointed. He also stated he had received a private letter from both going and coming. On hor way to Mr Wise saying that owing to his absence from the colony, having to proceed to Canton on business, he would be unable to be present at that meeting; but would be back in Hongkong on Tuesday.

He also read another letter from the Colonial Secretary, stating that, as some misapprehension had arisen as to the wording of the letter to the Colonial Surge in. His Excellency wished it to be known that it was not his intention that all the eraons who had signed the petition should the aummoned, but that they should be invited to give evidence if they chose to do pit being however, within the competency of the Commission to summon such of the has appeared likely in any case to be able to give useful information

The Secretary then read a mution, which he had been requested to bring up by Dr Yarr, that a seb Commission be governed to make a house to house visitation with a view of examining and reporting upon anything which night firedispose to, if not cause the outbreak of fever. He also read a motion by Dr Cantlid that a series of questions be printed and distributed to the signers of the polition and such others as the members of the Commission deemed it necessary to send to. To this motion there was attached a schedillo suggesting the the P. and O. Company's steamer Clyde, of questions that should be put. Another motion by Dr Canthe, of the same, nature as Dr Yarr's was read. It was to the effect that a sub-commission be appointed from among the members to make a house to house visitation and inspection of District, four appointed, two to form a quorum, three weeks to be allowed for the work, the members to chose ally competent their visits if they deemed this necessary. ELECTIONS IN PRANCE. Parts. Nov. 28 .- The result of the four legislative elections which took place yesterday had been looked forward to with great interest, both by the Republican and Monarchical Parties. The seats to be filled were two in the Dupartment of the Nord, occupied since the General Elections of 1885 by M.M. Legrand de Lecelles and Bottiesu. bodi Comervatives ; one in the Department Pas de Calais, occupied since the same elections by M. Dussinssoy, Conserv. atilys; and one in the Department of the Youne, occupied since 1885 by M. Rathier, idical. The three deceased Conservatives were yesterday Toplaced by three Moderate Republicans, MM. P. Legrand and Maxime Lecomte in the Nord, and M. Camescasses in the Pas de Calais. As for the Department of the Youne it has now returned to the Chamber M. Hervieu, a Radical of rather more extreme views than his predicessor. In presuppe of this success it is natural that the Republican i arnals; should as elated, and point to it as a proof that in pite of all the scandals the Republic lies taken such firm root in the country that it has nothing to fear in the way of a Monarchical restoration.

BUSSIL AND BOUMANIA. Bucharest, Nov. 27. - Much attention has been excited here, particularly in military circles, by an article in the Neverassyski Telegroph, from the pen of a Russian officer concerning the role of Roumania in an Austro-Russian war, and the advantages which, it is orged, the country would derive by taking part with Russia. The same argument is followed in a pamphlet of Russian authorship recently published in St. Pereraburg, is which the writer declares that Resentants in return for co-operation with Rheis would gain not only Transylvanis, in also the Banat and the Lower Bukoving and is further intimated that Russia might tually not be averse from the rotal of a portion of Bessarabis to Round The pamphlet in question is related.
